

Case study:

Diavaz

“Wormhole Campus has been with me since the first Google search until today”

Iván García Ortega, Organizational Development Consultant in Diavaz - the Mexican group which provides services and solutions for the oil industry - easily answers why he has chosen Wormhole to train thousands of employees all over the world.

Iván, what does your company do?

Since 1973, Grupo Diavaz has been one of the companies with the greatest experience in Mexico, and from then on, we have developed a sound knowledge of the energy sector. Through different strategic partnerships, we have positioned ourselves as a reference in the oil and gas value chain, at worldwide level.

Which was the need of your company when contacting Wormhole?

We needed a training administrator to allow us to connect all our employees to keep them updated with internal policies, changes, regulations and other necessary documentation in the area.

How did you hear about us?

My first approach was as a regular Internet user. I took my computer, searched in Google and found you in the first place. After going through some companies, I chose to fill in a form and you contacted me quickly to tell me about the platform features.

Which solution to the need of your company has our service offered you?

I started with a basic plan, with 250 employees, to test

- Solution: Wormhole Campus

identification and reception of our area. Sometimes, technological changes arrive faster than collaborator’s preparation. As the tool is intuitive, they learned really fast, so we decided to include more employees to our trainings.

Which are the benefits that our product has brought you?

The platform is agile, dynamic and with an excellent customer service support. In those real moments, when you have to take the first course or prove if the person taking the course is learning, Wormhole Campus enormously exceeds our expectations. You are there in each moment and that gives us security.

What do you like the most about the service?

The speed and follow-up of the cases. This allows us to understand the participants’ progress and to keep on improving in the offered content.

Would you recommend us to a colleague/customer/partner? Why?

Yes, because it is a super tool with an excellent price. Sometimes, words are not needed. It is necessary to prove it to understand this tool’s potential.
